Member Harries Relates What Has Been Accomplished.

THEIR WORK ALL COMPLETED

Difficulty with the Pine Ridge and Rosebud Indians Settled After Six Weeks' Hard Work—Valuable Information Collected That Will Be Laid Before Congress.

OMAHA, Aug. 18.—Members of the Sioux commission are in the city, having completed their work. In conversation Commissioner Harries, of Washington, said:

"More important than any other branch of our duties was the settlement of the difficulty between the Pine Ridge and Rosebud Indians. By the terms of the Foster-Warner-Crook treaty the boundary line between the two reservations was moved eastwardly nearly twenty miles.

"This action, agreed to by the Rosebud Indians (who were the losers) rendered about 600 Rosebud people homeless, unless the Pine Ridge folks consented to their being transferred to the Pine Ridge agency rolls. To secure this consent took about six weeks of the most active campaigning. Then, when our work was apparently done, some opponent of the ratified agreement stole Chairman Pearce's valise, containing all the official documents. Luckily, however, we had check lists from which it was possible to construct a duplicate of the missing agreement. And this duplicate, properly certified, has been accepted by the interior department as satisfactory and binding.

"At Rosebud and Lower Brule agencies we collected much valuable information on which congressional or departmental action may be based, but nothing in the nature of a treaty was negotiated. It was generally understood prior to our visit to these places that the controlling element at Lower Brule desired to sell the entire reservation and to settle upon the northern edge of the Rosebud reservation just south of White river, but our investigation convinced us that the time for such proceedings has not yet arrived. Both the Lower Brule and Rosebud Indians are, however, discussing the probabilities with all seriousness, and they may soon reach a conclusion among themselves, and without any 'white man' intervention."

New Paper in Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 18.—Subscription papers are being circulated here for a new Republican daily paper to be known as the Indianapolis Republican, which is to be run in the interest of that party regardless of national issues, the projectors claiming not to take any interest in anything but local affairs. Some 3,000 subscribers have already been secured, but the greatest secrecy is being enjoined regarding those who are backing it. Some say that the money is being furnished by A. L. Conger, of Akron, O., but others say that the paper is to be started on funds secured from the different counties by subscription of the several county committees.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 18.—There is no change in the window glass situation, and the prospects for another conference on the scale are no brighter than they were when the last one adjourned. The manufacturers seem indifferent as to when they will come to an understanding, and the men are apparently enjoying the prolonged vacation. The workmen, however, say they have little fear as to the results. When the manufacturers are pushed for stock they say they will start regardless of the scale.

A Sunday Double Murder.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Aug. 18.—Three boys became involved in a row Sunday evening at Mr. Leigher's house, three miles from the city, and two are now in a dying condition as a result. Charlie Caster, a 20-year-old son of James Caster, used a knife on Dick and Bunk Phares, cutting them to pieces and leaving them in a dying condition. Caster was arrested and placed in jail. He claims the Phares boys were the aggressors while eye-witnesses assert that he was the aggressor from the start.

Fire in a Mine.

LEADVILLE, Colo., Aug. 18.—Fire broke out in the shaft of the Louisville mine near here last evening and burned all the timbers up the shaft for 500 feet. When the flames reached the top they consumed the shaft house, ore bins and everything else except the engine house. Damage over $30,000.

Their Lives Saved.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 18.—E. David Jacobs and Mrs. Mary Johnson, the Chesterfield prisoners, whom Governor Tillman reprieved on the gallows last Friday just as the sheriff was about to swing them off, had their sentences commuted yesterday to life imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Diphtheria and Scarlet Fever.

SHELBY, O., Aug. 18.—Diphtheria and scarlet fever are both gaining a foothold in our town. The twelve-year-old daughter of Samuel Shreffler died yesterday from diphtheria, and several others are in a dangerous condition.

Had Trouble with His Wife.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Mathias Wagner, a tailor, seventy-two years old, committed suicide by severing an artery in his wrist and bleeding to death. Trouble with his wife was the cause of the act.

Elliott Will Be Expelled.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 18.—The McCoy post, of which W. J. Elliott, now serving a life sentence in the penitentiary, was a member, have decided to expel him.

RAVAGES OF YELLOW FEVER.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—The steamer City of Washington which has just arrived here from Mexican ports and Havana, reports that yellow fever was prevalent to an alarming extent in Vera Cruz, and though the health authorities were striving to check the spread of the disease, their efforts were apparently unavailing.

During the last six weeks many deaths have occurred, and it was a common sight, the officers of the vessel say, to see a string of funerals half a mile long, stretching from the gates of the city to the cemetery, each funeral party waiting patiently for a chance to bury its dead. Among the latest victims of the malady is L. J. Snowball, a well-known commission merchant of 70 Wall street, who has been in Mexico since Aug. 2.

The City of Washington was detained for thorough inspection and fumigation at quarantine as a precautionary measure and will not be allowed to come up to the city until tomorrow. On the vessel are Captain Pratt and wife, of the tugboat Julia, the second mate and three sailors of the American brig Abkar and Imperia, all of which vessels were recently wrecked.

EMMA ABBOTT'S MUSIC TEACHER.

The Man to Whom the Late Prima Donna Owed Her Success in a Poor House.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 18.—Among the inmates of the Milwaukee county poor house is the man to whom the late Emma Abbott owed her success as a prima donna. He was her first music teacher, and when she was discouraged by reverses, he was the first to encourage her to study for the stage. His name is George A. Cowan, and yesterday was his seventieth birthday.

When but seven years old Cowan lost the use of both eyes through a cold and has ever since been blind. At the age of nineteen he became a pupil of the first school for the blind established in New York. He developed such marked ability for music that he was educated for a music teacher, and after several years of study he graduated with high musical honors.

While he was a professor at the Worthington seminary, near Columbus, O., Emma Abbott, then a girl of but thirteen years, came to him to have her voice tested. It was at his advice that she adopted her professional career.

ARRESTED HIS FRIEND.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 18.—Elmer Bruner, who murdered old man Reese at Ebensburg last Thursday, was arrested here yesterday afternoon by Stephen Acor, a member of Company A, Fourteenth regiment, N. G. P.

Acor was a personal friend of Bruner since boyhood. They met on the street near Acor's home yesterday. Acor told Bruner it was his duty to arrest him, knowing Bruner was wanted for murder, which he did and took him to Central station, and locked up. Bruner has been in Pittsburg since Thursday, and Saturday night was at a theater, but neither the police or detectives got their optics on him.

Bruner claims he went into old man Reese's house for a drink when the old man pulled a gun on him, and he shot Reese in self-defense. There is no doubt, however, but Bruner's intention was to rob the house, and when Reese surprised him with his gun, Bruner shot and killed the old man.

PREPARING TO CELEBRATE.

Bennington, Vermont, Ready to Receive the President.

BENNINGTON, Aug. 18.—The little town of Bennington is all ready for the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of Vermont's statehood and the dedication of the monument to commemorate the battle of Bennington.

The president will reach North Bennington this evening but he will not come to Bennington until tomorrow forenoon. He will be entertained at North Bennington tonight by General McCullough, who has tendered the hospitality of his home to the presidential party.

Every train that came into Bennington during the past twenty-four hours brought many excursionists, and the town is crowded.

A FLURRY IN WHEAT.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Monday was a lively day on the Produce exchange. The wheat market was wild, December opening at $1.17 to $1.19. Trading was enormous.

Corn was also excited, September going as high as seventy-three and one-half cents.

Reports from the various large grain markets of the United States showed the same feeling.

In Chicago the wheat reached $1.14. European markets were also excited.

Funeral of a Congressman.

YANKTON, S. D., Aug. 18.—The funeral of the late Congressman John Gamble occurred at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Congregational church, the sermon being preached by the Rev. F. D. Bardley. The pallbearers were B. S. Williams, Judge E. G. Smith, State Senator French, United States Senator Pettigrew and G. W. Kingsbury.

MELBOURNE, Aug. 18.—The British Bank of Australia has suspended. The liabilities are $300,000, of which about half is held in England.

WRECKED TRAINS.

Terrible Railroad Accident in Switzerland.

THIRTEEN PEOPLE MEET DEATH.

The Paris Express Dashes Into an Excursion Train Loaded with Hundreds of Passengers—The Loss of Life a Serious One, but Might Have Been Greater.

BERNE, Aug. 18.—A terrible accident resulting in the instant death of thirteen persons and the serious injury of many others, some of whom will probably die, occurred yesterday on the Jura-Simplon railway, near this city. Eighteen persons are seriously injured, the majority of them requiring surgical treatment, and some of these are likely to die. Thirty others are less severely hurt. Several of the dead are so mangled as to be unrecognizable.

A special excursion train which was conveying hundreds of villagers from the surrounding country to witness the fetes in connection with the 700th anniversary of the foundation of the city of Berne was stopped at a siding a short distance from its destination in order to allow the regular Paris express to pass. The engineer of the express, as nearly as can now be ascertained, had not been notified of the fact that the excursion train was on the track ahead of him, and the conductor of the excursion train seems to have neglected to send a signal man back to protect the rear of his train.

The express, running at high speed, came upon the excursion train so suddenly that the engineer's efforts to check its speed and avoid disaster were unavailing. The heavy express dashed into the rear of the excursion train, demolishing the hindmost coach and forcing its way partly through the next one. The rear coach happened to be an empty one which was intended for passengers to be taken on at another station. The guards in charge of it were killed, but the presence of this car doubtless saved the lives of many occupants of the other coaches. As it was, nearly all the passengers in the second coach were killed or wounded. Twelve corpses were taken out of the wreck.

The trainmen, assisted by the passengers who had escaped injury, set to work immediately to rescue the unfortunates who were imprisoned in the wreck. Heartrending cries of agony nerved them to almost superhuman efforts, but in spite of their exertions they were forced to witness the death before their eyes of several who had not been killed outright, but were crushed by broken timbers or exposed to the escaping steam from the locomotive. Twelve corpses were taken out of the debris, and the injured were finally extricated and cared for as well as the conditions of the place permitted, pending the arrival of a special train from Berne, which had been telegraphed for immediately after the collision, and which conveyed physicians and surgeons to the scene.

Most of the victims of the disaster were residents of towns in the vicinity of this city, and the news of the calamity has caused excitement and mourning all through the region. The sad event has marred the festivities incident to the celebration in which the Bernese have been so joyously engaged, and the remaining fetes on the program will doubtless be abandoned in consequence.

CONDUCTOR MURDERED.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 18.—While Conductor E. A. Ward and Motorman John Hemming were waiting at the end of the electric line before beginning their return trip, two men came on the front platform and told them to hold up their hands. Hemming said: "I guess not," and went out on the platform.

A short scuffle ensued, a shot was heard, and Hemming rolled from the car down a slight embankment mortally wounded, dying about a half hour afterwards. The electric company offers a reward of $500 for the murderer and thirty men on horseback are scouring the country. Two men have just been arrested suspected of being the murderers.

Effect of a Cloudburst.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 18.—A special from Agency says: A cloudburst in the vicinity of the junction of the One Hundred and Two and the Platte rivers Sunday caused much loss of property. The river rose twenty feet in six hours and twelve or fifteen farms were ruined. Houses, barns and stock were swept away and crops ruined. Many narrow escapes are reported, but no lives are yet known to be lost. Another cloudburst in the same place followed this morning causing much more damage, but particulars have not yet been obtained.

Railroad Contracts Let.

COSHOCTON, O., Aug. 18.—The contracts for the road bed of the Toledo, Walhonding Valley and Ohio railroad between this city and Mansfield was let yesterday. The work was divided between the following firms: A. M. Wimper, of Toledo, eleven miles; W. F. Stanley, of Reedy, W. Va., sixteen miles; Mat Spellacy, of Cleveland, eleven miles; Jones & Winster, of Mt. Vernon, four miles, and McCann & Elerinor, of Steubenville, four miles. It is to be finished by March next.

No Fears of a Drouth.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Aug. 18.—A heavy and almost incessant rain has fallen for three days past, and the ground is now thoroughly soaked, which dispels all fear of the corn crop being hurt by drouth. The prospects for a large crop in this locality were never better and the acreage is large. The crop is now secure if not another drop of rain falls.

ATTEMPTED HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

DETROIT, Aug. 18.—An attempted highway robbery about 11 o'clock Sunday night resulted disastrously to the two robbers, one being mortally wounded and the other, it is thought, badly wounded. At the hour named a man and woman were promenading on the boulevard near the Mack road.

At this point there is a dense wood, and the place is very dark. The couple were all unconscious of danger when suddenly two men sprung out from among the trees and halted them. One of the men had a revolver in his hand and the other carried a wagon spoke.

"Throw up your hands and give up your money," cried the man carrying the revolver, at the same time thrusting the weapon near his intended victim's face. The young man grabbed the revolver and with a quick jerk wrenched it from the robber's hand.

In an instant, however, he was felled to the ground by a stunning blow from the wagon spoke in the hands of the second robber. He then choked the young woman, who screamed loudly.

Officers Tracy and Palmer, who have been on the lookout as a result of a number of reports of just such robberies, were close by and came running up. The highwayman, who again had got the revolver, opened fire on them as they did so. The officers returned the fire, and one of the robbers dropped in his tracks just as he was in the act of turning to run.

His companion had already fled into the grove, and it is believed that he, too, received a bullet. Officer Palmer had a narrow escape, as a bullet cut through his trousers. The wounded robber, who gave his name as Edward Ganger, of this city, was taken to the hospital, where he will probably die. The other robber has not been captured.

Deed of a Jealous Husband.

BEDFORD, Ind., Aug. 18.—Dr. W. Judah, proprietor of the Avenue Hotel, inspired by jealousy, the ill-feeling of which has been brewing for some time, Sunday night called to his wife, who was seated at the table writing, asking if she was going to sleep in that room. She replied, whereupon he drew a revolver from underneath his pillow and attempted to shoot her, but his aim was deflected by his fourteen-year-old son, who is a cripple, and the bullet lodged in the ceiling. The second shot, however, struck Mrs. Judah in the neck, causing a dangerous injury, at first thought to be fatal. Judah then fired a bullet into his own brain, falling dead. Mrs. Judah has since rallied from the effect of the shot, and there is a possibility of recovery.

Peaches in the Great Fruit Belt.

HANOVER, Ind., Aug. 18.—The peach crop in this portion of the state, which is now being marketed, bids fair to be the largest ever raised in this, the great fruit belt of southern Indiana. The peaches thus far have been exceptionally fine in quality, nothing in the way of worms or other drawbacks having made their appearance. It is estimated that the peach crop of Jefferson county will aggregate 250,000 boxes.

Compromised with the Railroad.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Aug. 18.—Charles A. Russ, traveling salesman for a Boston house, was ejected from a Jeffersonville, Madison and Indianapolis railway train on the 25th ult., Conductor Vawter claiming that the signature on his 1,000-mile ticket and the conductor's tab did not tally. Russ sued for $5,000 damages and has compromised his claim for $1,300.

Will Be Tried for Manslaughter.

HOLYOKE, Mass., Aug. 18.—Maurice Healy, who was shot early Friday morning by C. H. Voight, the German jeweler, died yesterday. Voight was immediately arrested and will be held for manslaughter. Brady was 24 years old and was not of the party which assaulted Voight. The latter says he fired his pistol in the air, simply to scare the hoodlums.

They Saved the Dynamite.

SEYMOUR, Ind., Aug. 18.—Hon. W. N. McDonald's large barn in the southern part of this city was struck by lightning and was totally destroyed, together with the contents. There were 150 pounds of dynamite stored in a granary close by. It was taken out just in time to prevent its explosion.

Killed His Hostler.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 18.—Andrew W. Oppman, president of the Oppman Brewing company, had an altercation with one of his hostlers, Fred Zigel. After knocking Zigel down, the latter said, after taken to the hospital, Oppman beat him severely. Zigel died, and Oppman is held under the charge of murder.

Last Call Ended.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Under the last call with drawing government deposits from national banks, the time for such withdrawal expiring Saturday, $4,600,000 have been received at the treasury department. The call was for nearly $6,000,000.

A Reason for His Absence.

Freight Brakemen Strike.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 18.—The freight brakemen on the Lake Erie and Western railroad struck last night on a question of pay for overtime. Between 150 and 200 men are involved in it, and no trains left the city last night.

Two Girls Drowned.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1891.

Laws should be passed to put a stop to such hazardous feats as parachute jumping. The frightful death at Coney Island is only one of many that have occurred.

It's a little early yet to commence talking about it, but the next Governor of Kentucky may hail from Campbell County, and in that event he will bear the name of "the father of his country." There is excellent gubernatorial timber in a George Washington.

CONGRESSMAN REED, the Czar of the last Congress, is trying to get on the good side of the Democratic leaders. He evidently expects them to make it exceedingly interesting for him in the next House, and he is feeding the leaders, Mills and Crisp, on taffy. He says: "I like Mills. He is a man of sincere convictions. I have always found him a fair opponent, though I had to call him down once when he and Rogers, of Arkansas, got to catawampussing about the House one afternoon."

Mr. Mills can be relied upon to call Mr. Reed down whenever he gets to "catawampussing" about the floor of the next House.

Concert.

The ladies of the M. E. Church, South, will give a grand concert at the opera house on Thursday evening, August 20. The best talent of the city will take part in this entertainment. Miss Neppie Hendrick, of Flemingsburg, a graduate of Charles Adams' Conservatory of Music, Boston, will assist on this occasion. Admission, 35 cents. 18d3t

The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers of the California Fig Syrup Company.

Real Estate Transfers.

Chas. B. Pearce, Jr., and wife and I. M. Lane and wife to J. R. Seaman, a house and lot on south side of Fifth street, this city; consideration, $1,000.

The Kentucky Central took two excursion parties from here Sunday, a train of seven coaches to Parks' Hill, and several coach-loads of colored people to Lexington. The latter reached home at 3 o'clock Monday morning.

EIGHT THOUSAND.

That's the Estimate of the Crowd at Parks' Hill Sunday—Notes by J. B. H.

Correspondence of BULLETIN.

CAMP GROUNDS, August 16, 1891.

The second Sunday's crowd at this religious resort was sized up by reporter Hank's of the Kentucky Post at 8,000. The dining hall fed a thousand, Secret's booth did a lively trade and Martin Bros. of your city, ladeled out sixty-five gallons of ice cream.

At least 3,000 listened to Dr. Henderson, amidst the pattering of the rain, the chirp of the babies and the incessant hum of the multitude on the outer walls, like a mammoth bee hive stirred by an attack of hornets.

Rev. J. B. Ewan had 50 diners and one night 22 lodgers in his tent.

Frank Adair, of Carlisle was the blue ribbon soloist and Mr. and Mrs. Dale, of Mt. Sterling, attractive duettists. Joseph Norvell furnished the ice water to the thirty thousand and Moses Glenn kept vigilant over-shoulder the grounds.

Saturday's afternoon trains brought large accessions to the encampment, among them: Miss Mae Marshall, of Mason, and her guest Miss Lula D. Slaughter, of Danville; Miss Wood, Mr. John Duley, of Maysville; J. T. Suit and wife, of Sardis; Dr. Bell, of Fleming; Ben Spencer, of Winchester; Calvin Bland and family of Mason; Miss Lida Clarke, of Millersburg.

A welcome noon shower tempered the atmosphere and returned Parks' Hill to her normal condition, of being one of the most delightful summer resorts in the land—as sweet a nook as one could wish in August heats.

Next summer when we return we hope to see a fine hotel here, built by some rich and enterprising company on the top of this hill of great natural beauty, with no end of winding walks bosky dells for the pedestrians, artistic, adventurous and amatory; a sanitarium with Blue Lick water flowing and hundreds of visitors and sojourners reveling in the pure air and health-giving breezes of the Nicholas hills, and where the tony girls of the Blue Grass with their chosen fellows may shine and bask, and statesmen may dream and plan, the aged may rest, and the weary editor may have a quiet place to write. All this may be accomplished by a liberal outlay and good sense and good taste. This sacred mount may be turned into a Paradise and all its religious privileges still retained, by an annual camp meeting, a grand chapel being set apart for that purpose. J. B. H.

It Was Not Very Good, and Count Mitkiewicz Escaped Unharmed.

Sensational Affair at Washington in Which a Gentleman Known Here Figured.

Some three or four years ago Mr. Beverly C. Mosby, son of the ex-Confederate Gen. Mosby, spent several months here in the interest of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. He was a very courteous gentleman, a good conversationalist, and made many warm friends among those with whom he was thrown. A few days since he figured as one of the principals in a sensational affair at Washington City.

He had been away from home several years, and on returning recently he learned that his sister, Miss Stuart Mosby, was engaged to be married to a man named Miller, of Washington City. He naturally desired to meet his prospective brother-in-law, and look over him. The meeting was not very satisfactory to Mosby, and he attempted to dissuade his sister from keeping the engagement. She objected. He brother asked her what she knew of Miller. She replied she knew nothing beyond what she had seen of him. Miller hailed from Pittsburg. Her brother begged that she postpone the matter until he could reach that city and acquaint himself with Miller's antecedents. This was agreed to, although the wedding day was near at hand. Mosby's inquiries developed the fact that Miller served a term of six years in the penitentiary for being implicated in a robbery 100 miles above Pittsburg. An old man and his wife were tortured by a gang of scoundrels until they disclosed the hiding place of $21,000 which they had hoarded up. Miller, it seems, was not one of the torturers, but was convicted as an accessory. He escaped from prison in a packing box used for the transportation of prison-made shoes, but was recaptured in Canada and returned to Pittsburg, where he finished his term. From the manner of his escape he gained the sobriquet of "Shoebbox Miller," by which he is still remembered. Mr. Mosby was also told that Miller was a bigamist, who had three wives living.

Mosby returned the next day to Washington City and encountered his sister and her affianced on Pennsylvania avenue. He approached the two, and covering Miller with indignant reproaches struck him full in the face. Miller escaped and sought the seclusion of his room at Chamberlains, where he was staying.

Mosby meanwhile consulted with his friends as to the course he ought to pursue in the matter. His own purpose, as he expressed it, was to kill Miller, for he believed that the latter was deliberately plotting the ruin of his sister, and he felt that in no other way could the disgrace of another bigamous marriage be prevented. He was finally advised that the better plan would be a personal chastisement of Miller, and this he determined to administer at the latter's own rooms. He proceeded there with a friend, only to learn that Miller had left the city.

Miss Mosby had been introduced to Miller at the home of Count Eugene Mitkiewicz, she and the Count's wife being intimate friends. It appears that Mitkiewicz secured a concession from the Chinese Government for the establishment of an international bank, with a capital of $50,000,000. He represented in this matter a syndicate of Philadelphia who proposed to make the International bank an institution second only in importance to the banks of France and England. The scheme fell through, but the Count was handsomely remunerated for his services, and since that time he has made his home in Washington, leading the life of a man of leisure.

Mosby on learning of Miller's escape, started down Fifteenth street. He was furious with rage, and had gone but a few steps when a carriage drove up, and the Count and Countess Mitkiewicz alighted. As they started to enter their house they recognized Mosby. He informed Mitkiewicz that he desired a private conference with him. After some parley they stepped indoors, where Mosby at once upbraided Mitkiewicz for bringing about the betrothal of his sister and the Count's friend. Mosby believed that the Count was familiar with Miller's record, and that he had covertly influenced the alliance, to revenge himself for certain reflections which General Mosby had cast upon him. During the colloquy it was noticed that Mosby had not removed his hat. The Count told him that no man could remain in his house with his hat upon his head. Mosby, whose fury seemed to have gotten the best of his politeness, declined to uncover, whereupon the Count advanced threateningly toward him. Mosby stepped back, and drawing a self-cocking revolver, fired full at the Count's chest.

His unsteady aim caused the bullet to lodge in the wainscoting of the parlor instead of in the Count's body, and before he could fire again he was seized and disarmed.

The matter was subsequently settled to the mutual satisfaction of all concerned, by a written apology on Mosby's part. Count and Countess Mitkiewicz left the city the following day and are now spending the heated term at a fashionable Virginia mountain resort.

An interesting feature of the affair is that Miss Mosby refuses to believe Miller is the rascal and bigamist he is represented to be. She remains true to him and says she will marry him.

THE new Constitution majority was underestimated, but that sixty thousand pounds of barb and plain fence wire was not overestimated. Frank Owens Hardware Company can furnish any quantity of it. ti

IN the death of P. T. Barnum the advertising world lost a staunch friend and advocate. The great showman never lost an opportunity to preach the possibilities of printer's ink. CRISIS IN CHINA.

Perious State of Political Affairs Existing.

POWERS MAY BE CALLED UPON.

Foreign Ministers Unable to Obtain Redress for the Injury Done to Foreigners During the Recent Riots—Demands Made by England Upon the Chinese Government—Other Foreign News.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 18.—A serious state of political affairs exist in China, and the combined fleets of the powers may be called upon at any moment to take effective action. In this city great excitement prevails at the increasing tension between the Chinese authorities and the foreign ministers. The former are obstinate in their refusal to redress the injury done to foreigners during the recent riots. There is no reason to doubt that if the authorities do not yield, concerted action by the combined war vessels is imminent.

It is known that the foreign ministers have been compelled to inform the Chinese government that a joint naval demonstration of an effective nature, in which the French, American, British and German squadrons will take part, will be ordered in the near future unless speedy reparation is made for the injuries, outrages and abuses complained of by the ministers of the powers. Naturally the foreign population of this city, being aware of the firm stand taken by the English, is in a state of anxious expectation, which will continue until the reply of the Chinese government is made known.

World's Fair Feeling Abroad.

VIENNA, Aug. 18.—The foreign committee of the Chicago fair have met everywhere in Austria assurances of solid support. The Viennese chamber of commerce and the Society of Trades, the latter a powerful factor in Austrian commerce, have assured the committee-men of their hearty co-operation and influence to secure a fine display of Austrian work in science, mechanics and art. The Society of Trades has resolved to send a large delegation of its members to Chicago.

The committee will spend a short time in Holland and Belgium before returning to London on their way to the United States.

Corn Duties Not Reduced.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—A report that the German government had determined to reduce corn duties was received with rejoicing, Sunday, and especially in the manufacturing districts. It proved to be premature and the reaction among the poor was heartrending. Devices have been seized by the police at Chemnitz with the legend "Bread or Blood," and evidently intended to be used in a procession. The devices were destroyed. Nearly all the German refugees are absent from London, attending the labor congress at Brussels.

Riot in a Poor House.

BERLIN, Aug. 18.—A disturbance occurred recently among the 270 Russian and Polish immigrants in the poor house here, a number of them refusing to work. The guards who tried to enforce the rules were attacked with knives. Reinforcements were called in, and by the aid of a fire engine and hose the rioters were subdued, but they still refuse to work. The ringleaders are under arrest.

Troops Called Upon.

PARIS, Aug. 18.—Troops have been sent from Lille to Fourmies to put an end to disturbances there, which have resulted from labor disputes. Serious rioting is apprehended. Fourmies, it will be remembered, was the scene of the recent bloody May Day riots, which resulted in much loss of life, considerable ill-feeling against the troops and local authorities, the government being blamed for the troubles.

AGAIN AT WORK.

The Subterranean Forces That Throw Mud Into the Air in Indiana.

COLUMBUS, Aug. 18.—The people residing in the vicinity of Waldron, on the Big Four road, near the Bartholomew county line, are again greatly excited over the blowout that a year ago attracted so much attention, and which caused thousands of people to go to the point designated and witness the strange earthquake-like phenomena. The blowout commenced a few days since, and Saturday and Sunday morning mud, gravel, etc., were thrown to a great distance in the air. The size of the crater is not known, but it is said that it is getting larger as the eruption continues, and there is no telling where it will cease. The rumbling sound can be heard at a distance, and the people are beginning to get alarmed lest serious results follow.

ALL POISONED CAKES.

GRAFTON, W. Va., Aug. 18.—Mrs. George Mallonee, niece and five children, are lying in a dying condition from eating poisoned cakes.

It is believed some enemy attempted to poison the entire family by placing arsenic in the dough. The death of one or two of the children is expected. Suspicion points to certain parties as the poisoners and arrests may be made.

PITTSBURG Aug. 18.—A special to The Times from Erie says: W. L. Scott is gaining strength rapidly. Should be continued to improve during the coming week, he hopes to go to Newport the latter part of next week, with the hope that the salt sea air will fully restore him.

State Senator Stricken Down.

MOBILE, Aug. 18.—State Senator Alfred Goldthwaite, distinguished counsel in the celebrated Gaines' case was stricken with paralysis last night at Point Clear, a summer resort on Mobile bay. His condition is serious.

WELCOME RAINS.

Prospects of Crops Throughout the Ohio Valley.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The crop report from the states of the Ohio valley for the week just ended is as follows:

Ohio—Corn continues to promise well, but has suffered some from drouth, as have potatoes and pastures. The oat yield is large.

Indiana—The rainfall was very badly distributed, and was generally deficient. More rainfall is needed to insure a good corn crop in the greater portion of the state.

Kentucky—The hot, dry weather has been detrimental to corn and tobacco, and the latter will not be more than three-fourths of a crop. Fruit is abundant. Hemp promises well.

Tennessee—Late corn and other growing crops need rain greatly. Tobacco is not developing owing to drouth; some early tobacco is being cut. Cotton is fruiting well and the warm, dry weather was beneficial.

Illinois—Crop conditions greatly improved. Corn will be a heavy crop if not injured by frosts. The soil is in excellent condition.

Bogus Land Scheme.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 18.—George W. Young and Harry E. Clark, who were before the municipal court yesterday afternoon charged with running a bogus land colonization company, and discharged on a technical objection, were immediately arrested upon information of William A. Prosser, of Chicago. The warrant charges that the prisoners carried on a business in Chicago under the name of J. West & Company for the purpose of using the mails to defraud.

Literally Torn to Pieces.

CAMDEN, S. C., Aug. 18.—An unknown colored man was run over and literally torn to pieces yesterday by a passenger train on the South Carolina railway, between Dixie and Claremont stations. The man was lying upon the track, and as the whistle blew he raised his head and fell back. From old wounds discovered on portions of his body, it is evident that he had been dealt foully with and placed on the track.

Damaging Cloudburst.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Aug. 18.—A cloudburst here Sunday night, about 9 o'clock, did a large amount of damage in the city. The branch that runs along the east side overflowed in a few minutes, and houses were flooded before the occupants could move carpets or furniture. The loss will reach hundreds of dollars, and there will be a large amount of street and bridge repairing. It is the severest washout in the history of the city.

Suicided in Jail.

QUINCY, Ills., Aug. 18.—Hiram J. Baker, who has been here several weeks, and claimed to be of the firm of Hiram J. Baker & Co., New York importers, was sent to jail Saturday for attempting to defraud a hotel proprietor out of a board bill. Late Saturday night Baker cut his throat, from the effects of which he died yesterday.

Invited to Chicago.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, recently sent a letter to the delegates to the international labor congress, which assembled at Brussels yesterday, inviting them to hold an international labor congress in Chicago during the world's exposition in the latter city.

Jesse Pomeroy Attempts to Escape.

BOSTON, Aug. 18.—Jesse Pomeroy, who is serving a solitary life sentence for murder, attempted to escape Sunday. He had in his possession a case knife which had been notched so as to make a rude saw. He was discovered at work on the bars of the windows in his cell. This is his second attempt at escape.

Ambushed and Killed.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 18.—Yesterday at a point two miles from Falmouth, Ky., James Rochford was ambushed and fatally shot by unknown parties. Rochford was a bad man, and a terror to the neighborhood. About twenty-four buckshot entered the back of his head.

Salvation Army Remembered.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Aug. 18.—Mrs. Mary Stanley, residing in Goshen township, died recently and her will was offered for probate yesterday. Among the bequests is one for $1,000 to the Salvation Army. It is probable the legacy will be paid to General Booth.

Boy Killed by Cars.

ALLIANCE, O., Aug. 18.—John Hurly, aged 14, of Ravenna, who was section boy on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh railroad, was killed at Lima yesterday while getting off the train.

The Lightning's Queer Freak.

Lightning does some queer things, but nothing like the following, perhaps, has ever before been attributed to it: "A streak of Grand Rapids (Mich.) lightning followed an electric light wire into the children's department of St. Mark's hospital, coolly turned on the gas, lighted it and left for parts unknown."
